

The Ruins New Year's Eve Party

It's going to be yet another huge New Year's Eve event in St. Francis Bay. The Ruins, now labelled SA's premier New Year's Eve Party has over the years made St Francis synonymous with being the "Home of New Year's Eve" in South Africa.

The event was first started in 2001 after two first year University of Stellenbosch students persuaded Lionel Donnelly to rent them an old derelict house on the hill (now the St. Francis Links golf course) overlooking S. Francis Bay. The house, the ruins of a B&B that had burnt down a few years earlier, became the backdrop to the event and the idea behind the name 'The Ruins'.

The first event boasted a colourful line-up which included Watershed, Darren Scott (5FM) and notorious Bad Brad from Big Brother remember him?). It was a sell-out, attracting thousands of party goers – and immediately labelled the largest New Year's Eve event in South Africa. The event has since cemented St Francis Bay as the 'Home of New Year's Eve', attracting line-ups which have included international Grammy Award winning artists Amy-Lee of Evanescence and Seether.

There has been a conscience too, in 2004 organisers donated R40 000 to the St. Francis Bay Residents Association (then chaired by Drummond Campbell) and in 2012 held a charity event, which raised R20 000 to assist the St Francis Bay Fire Station build up much needed equipment after the aftermath of the fires that devastated the village.

The event is now in its 14th year running and has enjoyed the loyal support of blue-ship sponsors SABMiller and 5FM who have been integral in the success of the event.

The good news is that the 5FM / Castle Light - 2014 New Years Eve party will not disappoint. The massive entertainment line-up for New Year's Eve, will include Zebra & Giraffe who will be headlining the Ruins on the back of their newly released Album, "Knuckles". Joining them on stage will be one of SA's favourite electronic dance acts, The Kiffness together with Drum & Bass icons Haezer and Niskerone who have recorded a special, one night only, New Year's Eve mix! If that is not already enough to get you excited, you will be able to catch popular 5FM radio DJ's Rob Forbes and Nick Hamman on stage. Local Eastern Cape artists Kinky Robot and Circular Drive will also be performing at the event.

Tickets are available through Computicket or outside the Village Spar. General Admission (R295), Golden Circle (R395) and VIP-Over 21 (R595). Golden Circle Tickets & VIP Tickets include a R1000 Police Sunglasses voucher as well as a Police Cap (R200).

VIP tickets are for ages 21 and over only and also include Free after party tickets (R65) for the after party to be held in the VIP tent. Last year Golden Circle and VIP tickets were sold out, so ensure you get your tickets early to avoid disappointment.

Harm & Nicky have been semi-local residents over the festive season for more than 25 years and have seen Christy's Catch grow from a small take-away shop into your local fish monger.

The whole family including their three children are originally from Pretoria where they were born and raised. Harm has been in and out of the restaurant industry for the last 24 years. They have now permanently relocated to our beautiful part of the country and we wish them well on their new adventure. May it bring them the same joy and happiness Mark and I have experienced.

Harm & Nicky would like to thank Mark & Denise "for entrusting us with their marvelous establishment and we hope that we can take Christy's Catch to even better and bigger things".

They are keeping on all the existing staff and the fresh long-line hake and kingklip is still supplied by the Christy vessels. Gavin is still in charge of the sushi bar and you will still experience the same quality food with a few improvements

If you are looking for Denise, she has joined the Chas Everitt team, on St Francis Drive, to continue with her passion of selling property. "We wish Harm and Nicky all the best in their new venture and may that they have a fantastic season. To all the locals and holiday makers, we will miss you all and hope you have a wonderful holiday".
