

Williams Hunt's unforgettable Christmas party for farm school kids

The children of the isolated Kouga farm school, Uitvlucht, had a most wonderful, fun Christmas party thanks to Williams Hunt Humansdorp.

And not only the kids but the families in the area – about 50 families – can also celebrate Christmas with their food hampers received.

The school wrote in a letter of thanks that it was an almost unbelievable and wonderful day for the kids who were so overcome, while the families too were immensely amazed and grateful for the food parcels. And the school says the party was for them far more fun than a day at the seaside.

"The kids were so overcome"

The kids received a big hamper of sweets and fruits and biscuits and lollies, and sweets plus a Christmas present each. And the highlight for them, besides the yummy things to eat was the water slide.

They showed their appreciation by holding up their presents in joy. And not only the kids but the families in the area – about 50 families – also can celebrate Christmas with food hampers they received.

Uitvlucht Primary School, is a farm school 30 kms from Humansdorp in the Kouga area. It has 48 learners, who almost all travel by bus. Most of the kids are underprivileged, but at Uitvlucht they are guaranteed of one nourishing meal per day, thanks to the support of Kouga businesses like Williams Hunt.

The family food hampers included 5 kg each of rice, beans (dry), sugar, maize and flour, and things like salts, baking aids, soup, tinned foods, toilet paper and everyday necessities.

The school has been supported by businesses operating in Kouga, notably Williams Hunt, Through donations and funding the school has acquired paving, classrooms, computers, toilets, new painted walls, a recreational area and a cafeteria.

Psalms 116:5-9, 14, 17; 117:1, 2

Gracious is the Lord, and righteous; yea, our God is merciful.

The Lord preserves the simple: I was brought low, and He helped me.

Return unto thy rest, O my soul; for the Lord hath dealt bountifully with thee.

For thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling. I will walk before the Lord in the land of the living.

I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all his people.

I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the Lord.

O praise the Lord, all ye nations: praise him, all ye people.

For his merciful kindness is great toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth for ever. Praise ye the Lord.

Ps. 100:2 (to :), 4 Serve the Lord with gladness: Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.

Ps. 50:15 And call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.

Col. 3:17 And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God, and the Father by him.
