St Francis has a 'top billing' list of events to offer everyone this festive season and is fast becoming the preferred holiday spot for not only the jet set but for families with teenagers who also want to party.

And this year St Francis once again has a fantastic programme of events to suit all tastes. Excitement is mounting in St Francis especially for party lovers since on the programme are different events suited to the yuppies and jet set, the teeny bops, the sporty, the kids under 13 and the small tots. Plus there are many events such as wine tasting and other social 'must-dos' where adults can chill-out or party up a storm..

Highlights are Billy's Beach where those in the 20-40 jet set will be partying around and in a tent next to a dam, making this a top hot spot.

The event took off like a rocket on day 1 two years ago and last year was the most popular place to be in the Eastern Cape and South Africa.

Then there is the annual Ruins event which promises a fantastic New Year's party which entices youngsters from all over South Africa. Parents book accommodation outlets' in St Francis especially for their teens – knowing that they can party in a safe place at the Ruins next to the Fire Station. And the yuppies and jet set have booked houses over season for R7000 a day and upwards just so they can attend Billy's Beach.

Billy's Beach

Besides these top drawcards, Cape St Francis Resort, St Francis Links and several restaurants have music acts lined up, including Cobbs Cove and the Brewery Company.

Sports' people are also in for a treat this season with various sports events lined up.

For the smaller kiddies, there is a great Fun Park offering putt-putt, volleyball, go karts, and a play area with a pirate boat. open from 10 am - 4.30 pm the fun park is situated behind the fire station in St Francis Drive.
