Jeff is now a Maestro!

Jeff Clause, CEO of St Francis Links Golf Estate is one of a select few who have achieved the status of Master Professional in South Africa.

Master professional status is the highest accolade for a PGA Professional and is bestowed upon those members who have contributed significantly to the game of golf through outstanding commitment and contribution to the profession. He has also been awarded PGA Professional of the Year for an unprecedented 3rd time!

Jeff, aka Santa, Clause in South Africa and globally has become synonymous with legendary service and ensuring of the ultimate experience for any golfer at his facility – whether that golfer is a stalwart club member or, as Jeff refers to visitors, a "member for the day".

Clause, who hails from Iowa, US, has been in South Africa since the early '90s and has become an institution in the Southern and Eastern Cape, where he has held three Director of Golf positions. A dedicated member of the PGA of South Africa, Clause has been a member of the national Board of the PGA and is active in the regional development of the PGA too. He was previously awarded PGA Professional of the Year in 1995 and 2003 by the PGAs of SA and International PGA Professional of the Year by the PGAs of Europe in 2006.

Shelley finished her first Iron Man 70.3 last month. She completed the 1.9km sea swim, 90km road cycle and 21.2km run in 7hrs 30 minutes. Story p15.

Paddle out for Helmie Tilders

Some of a large group paddlers who paddled out in the bay to pay tribute to one of St Francis' most respected and loved residents, Helmie Tilders from Cape St Francis. It was a moving tribute to a noble man. Condolences to his friends and family. Photo: Clive Wright
