

Vincent catches huge cob

Karlu Lyons holds this huge Cob, weighing 8-10 kg, that her father, Vincent, caught this month.

Neill Hulett's 2008 World Paragliding Distance record of 503km has been broken by 8 km!
 "Well done Frank Brown and friends, you guys rock!", a pleased Hulett said. "Wow after almost 7 years I am stoked that my 503 km Paragliding World distance record has been broken."
 "You I think 550km is possible in South Africa! The 513 km flight yesterday by Frank Brown, Marcollo & Donzele in Brazil took 11:20 minutes compared to my world record flight 8 km shorter which took 7hrs 30 minutes.

 "Question is should I attack the world paragliding distance record again in 80km/hr winds or should I be happy with being the first paraglider today to fly more than 500km. But, ... This summer looks like a world record one of the paragliders today fly 20% better than the one I used in 2008," Hulett adds.

Fish today for a healthy tomorrow.....
