

PORT ELIZABETH - SCENE AROUND - ST FRANCIS BAY

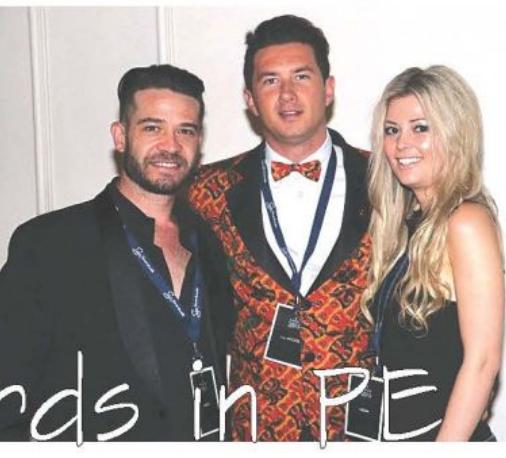

Nicole Lee-anne Batten, Sarah Will and Lee Jansen-Stoltz

Red carpet for African Movie Academy Awards in PE

Selwyn Willis and Natasha Campodonico-Willis

Lee Jansen-Stoltz, Neil Barker and Nicole Lee-anne Batten.

unathi and friends

Roland Williams and Shahnaz Williams

NELSON MANDELA BAY ROLLED OUT THE RED CARPET FOR AMAA 2015
 Popularly known as the "City of the Legends", Port Elizabeth played host to over 1,500 creative professionals from across the globe converging on the city, the birthplace to legends such as Nelson Mandela, Oliver Tambo and Walter Sisulu, to honour the men and women producing more movies per year than Hollywood. The 11th annual African Movie Academy Awards (AMAA), which has been dubbed the "African Oscars," by CNN, took place on Saturday, 26 September 2015 at the Boardwalk International Convention Centre (ICC).

Peace Anyiam-Osigwe, founder and CEO of AMAA opened the evening with a wonderful speech about how Africans need to come together in order to do away with borders. Despite a few hiccups leading up to this prestigious event, including a late start to the evening and many nominees experiencing VISA challenges when flying into South Africa, the AMAAs 2015 was well attended by "who's who" in Port Elizabeth as well as the AMAA 2015 nominees from across the globe. The evening was open to the public who also had the opportunity to mingle with A-list industry giants, walk the red carpet and treat themselves to a night of style and glamour. All guests were entertained by Asanda Mqiki, Edge and KCEE. AMAAs is more than just about awards; it's about a lifestyle of class style , glitz and razzmatazz. It is the biggest gathering of filmmakers from across the African continent and the rest of the World. The 184 nominees across the 24 categories attended the evening, as well as the judges and invited guests, including many A-list celebrities. The AMAA's is the most highly recognised award in the African film industry globally.

AMAA's 2015 winners are as follows:

Efere Ozako Amaa 2015 Award For Best

Short Film
 Twaaga - Burkina Faso
 Amaa 2015 Award For Best Animation
 The Legacies Of Rubies - Nigeria
 Amaa 2015 Award For Best Documentary
 Egypt's Modern Pharaohs - Egypt
 Ousmane Sembene Amaa 2015 Award For Best Film In An African Language
 Timbuktu - Mauritania
 Michael Anyiam Osigwe Amaa 2015 Award For Best Film By An African Living Abroad:
 Fevers - Morocco
 Amaa 2015 Award For Best Diaspora Short Sound Of Tears - Canada
 Amaa 2015 Award For Best Diaspora Documentary

The Black Panthers: Vanguard Of The Revolution - USA
 Amaa 2015 Award For Achievement In Visual Effect
 Inumber Number
 Supremacy - USA
 Amaa 2015 Award For Achievement In Production Design
 Inumber Number
 Amaa 2015 Achievement In Costume Design
 October 1 - Nigeria
 Amaa 2015 Award For Achievement In Make-up
 Njinga: Queen Of Angola - Angola
 Amaa 2015 Award For Achievement In Screen Play
 Le President

Triangle Going To America - Ethiopia
 Amaa 2015 Award For Achievement In Cinematography
 Inumber Number
 Amaa 2015 Award For Achievement In Sound
 Lobraz Khan - Mauritius
 Amaa 2015 Award For Achievement In Cinematography
 Lobraz Khan - Mauritius
 Amaa 2015 Award For Achievement In Editing
 Timbuktu
 Amaa 2015 Award For Achievement In Screen Play
 Le President

Amaa 2015 Award For Best Comedy Film
 30 Days In Atlanta
 Amaa 2015 - Bayelsa State Government Endowed Award For Best Nigerian Film
 October 1
 Amaa 2015 Award For Best Child Actor
 Layla Walet Mohammed And Mehdi A.g
 Mohammed - Timbuktu
 Amaa 2015 Award For Best Young/ Promising Actor
 It's A Joint Award And The Award Goes To
 Kemi Lala Akindolu (dazzling Mirage) And Hassan Spike Insingoma - (boda Boda Thieves)
 Amaa 2015 Award For Best Actor In A Supporting Role

Samson Tadesse - Triangle Going To America
 Amaa 2015 Award For Best Actress In A Supporting Role
 Hilda Dokubo - Stigma
 Amaa 2015 Award For Best Actor In A Leading Role
 Sadiq Daba - October 1
 Amaa 2015 Award For Best Actress In A Leading Role
 Leslieana Pereira - Njinga: Queen Of Angola
 Amaa 2015 Award For Best First Feature Film By A Director
 Destiny Ekaraghia - Gone Too Far
 Amaa 2015 Award For Best Director
 Abderrahmane Sissako - Timbuktu

ST FRANCIS LINKS WEDDINGS

GOLF SOCIAL

Enjoying the social event at the Calamari Classic Golf at SFB Golf Club were Pam &amp; Mike Stark &amp; friend, Coleen from Durban