

Top entertainment galore lined up

St Francis has a most splendid list of events to offer everyone this festive season - from the adults and jet-set, to the teens and families. The themes lined up by top establishments and featured on our most comprehensive programme around, on p14, are on pure entertainment... and party party party...

St Francis is abuzz with excitement since on the programme suited to all tastes, young and old, are events designed to entertain or to enable one to party up a storm at top establishments (in alphabetical order) like Billy's Beach, Cape St Francis Resort, Christy's Catch After Dark, and St Francis Links. Have a look at their posters inside this newspaper for details of the events at these establishments, see p14 and our FB page.

At Billy's, now in its fourth year, those in the 20-40 jet set will be partying around and in a tent next to a dam and last year's social media dubbed it the best place to be in South Africa for the jet-set - and don't miss the Parlophones on 30 December, a family fun day of food and music.

Christy's, CSF Resort and St Francis Links have arguably the best entertainment combined for adults this season. Christy's offers hugely popular cabarets, particularly with the Afrikaans jet-set, such as Kurt Darren, Heuwels Fantasties and more. The Resort offers the Beatles and Jazz singer by Contrastage, while the Links offers hilarious comedians, Nik Rabinowitz and Texas Hoedown drawcards. All these establishments and others such as Big Time Taverna, Mauro's, The Brewing Company, are also offering great meals and yummy dinners. Also book for one of the fantastic Christmas lunches - see Christmas events on p14. Cape St Francis Resort also has a lovely New Year's lunch for those not wanting to cook on the first day of 2016. Then there the new popular coffee bars to try out, such as Picozzo's and the Bean Tree outside Spar.

St Francis is a big drawcard. Parents book accommodation outlets in St Francis especially for their teens - knowing that they can party in a safe place. And the yuppies and jet set have booked houses over season for R7000 a day and upwards just so they can attend Billy's Beach.

And for those who do prefer more outdoors and health conscious pursuits there is non-stop action lined up for every day of the season. See Sports section, also p 14.
