After the St Francis fires party

Below: Jeff Clause and Greg Darke

After the nine-day fires in some of St Francis' local residents and volunteers who assisted either in the front line or the sidelines took time out to relax at the Cove, a lovely sheltered spot from the winds. The gathering brought blankets and their own picnic baskets or chairs and chilled out on the Sunday afternoon. There was a lot of recounting of stories and swapping information.

A much bigger function for the firefighters themselves will be held later this month.
