

Bomb threat to JBay

Jeffreys Bay police are investigating a 'Bomb-threat' case and detectives are following up on various leads.

Information pertaining to the bomb threat is sketchy so far. The only details related to the media so far by Lt Gerda Swart of the Uitenhage Communications SAPs are the following:

A complainant received a voice message 11

Clarke's murderers get life

The three men who beat an elderly Addo farmer to death in April last year were sentenced to life imprisonment in the Grahamstown High Court yesterday, 26 February.

Lt Gerda Swart from the EC SAPS Communications in Uitenhage says Allan Clarke, 62, who lived alone on the farm Sundowner in Suniun, was beaten after being abducted from his farm following a robbery. After the three attackers were arrested, Clarke's body was found along a gravel road near the N2 in Greenbushes outside Port Elizabeth. Morwabisi Faku, 23, was sentenced to life imprisonment for murder and 15 years for robbery with aggravated circumstances. Lonwabo Pindo, 30 and Ayanda Nzimande, 30, were each sentenced to 20 years imprisonment for murder and 12 years for robbery with aggravated circumstances. Sentencing will run concurrently.

A case was officially registered with Jeffreys Bay SAPs on 7 March 2016.

"The SAPS treat all bomb threats in a serious light and thorough investigations into this matter are currently underway," Swart said.
