

Man arrested with R12 0000 worth mandrax in Humansdorp

The Humansdorp SAPS arrested a 36 year-old man for being in possession of R120 000 worth of mandrax during a road block yesterday evening, 17 September. He was charged with illegal dealing in drugs.

Police noticed a suspicious vehicle approaching close to Mondplais at about 5 pm on the N2. They pulled the vehicle off the road and while searching it they found two bags containing 2000 mandrax tablets.

The suspect was arrested on the spot and is due to appear in the Humansdorp

Magistrate's court tomorrow, 18 September, on a charge of illegal dealing in drugs.

Police say by participating in efforts to address the root causes of crime, members from SAPS Jeffreys Bay and the Humansdorp Operational Command Centre (OCC) responded to information about alleged drug activity and conducted the roadblock. Police also add that the eradication and clamping down on the illicit possession and sale of drugs continues to be the focus of police officials in the Humansdorp Cluster.
