Bacatini Pizzeria

Bacatini Pizzeria, the new Italian restaurant in St Francis Bay is offering excellent pizzas and pastas at affordable prices, enabling everyone to enjoy Italian cuisine.

Bacatini is the brainchild of Mauro Vietti, owner of Mauro's at St Francis Bay's port and has been established together with his partner, Gavin Coult.

The restaurant is named after Italian spaghetti that has a hole in it to capture Bava. Diners are in for a wonderful surprise when eating this delicious pasta.

Located on the upper level of the old St Francis Bay Village centre, St Francis Drive, Bacatini offers a great stopover for day time shoppers. Plus it is a beautiful venue for night-time parties, complemented by the great music systems installed.

All pizzas and pastas are freshly prepared with the best ingredients used, providing a delightful dining experience.

The outside areas, illuminated by fairy lights, present a taste of small village life in the pleasant evenings.

Call 063 706 3530 for a booking or just arrive with family or friends for a wonderful evening out - a perfect ending to the day at a special place on the coast.

The friendly staff will always aim to exceed your expectations and ensure the experience is a memorable occasion.

Open for breakfast with croissants, lunch and dinner, 9am-9:30pm.
