

Rock Lily - five weeks , 17 nights of rocking St Francis

Rock Lily Cape St Francis had a really special five weeks of music over the holiday period.

There were 17 Nights of music from different genres that filled Rock Lily. On the one night alone 150 packed into the venue to listen to B.O.O. Band featuring Chris Chameleon and his spectacular drummer Rian.

Then Arno Jansen attracted over 180 people to his show and the band was the show of the season!

Albert Frost, was equally spectacular and rocked the house with his lead guitar and that earned him the award for 'The Best Electric Guitar Album of the year.' Special mentions to Brian Finch, Jamie Lee Sexton, After Rock, The Rockin' Rascals, Rockin' Roots, The Sweet Resistance and 'The one and only' The Brothers ' who all made it a season to remember.

Mike Kinnings thanks all the bands, the management, plus the crowd and music lovers who came and showed so much appreciation, love and respect.

While some in St Francis were sad to see the visitors depart after a fabulous busy and fun season, others celebrated having the pubs and restaurants to themselves again and no queues! The local Absent Irish provided the music and the host of the occasion was Legends Bar in the Village... Great fun was had.
