

Dale Staples wins Mitchum Buffalo City Surf Pro 2018

A stoked Dale Staples from St Francis Bay emerged from the waters of Nahoon Reef in East London today, 15 April, as the Mitchum Buffalo City Surf Pro 2018 champion.

Surfing in excellent conditions on the final day of the Mitchum Buffalo City Surf Pro pres. by Reef Wetsuits, Dale eliminated local legend and former Championship Tour competitor, Greg Emslie, from the event.

Two other St Francis surfers who did incredibly well in the Mitchum Buffalo City Surf Pro were Longboard winner, Michael Hill, and Faye Zoetmulder winning in the semis.

Surf writer, Craig Jarvis writes that Greg Emslie reached the semis of the Mitchum

Buffalo City Surf Pro but Dale opened up the QS 1,000 final with an 8.5 in the high tide conditions, surfing powerfully and with confidence. "He followed this up immediately with a great back up score of 7 points, and McGillivray was on the ropes and in deep in combo-land only a few minutes into the heat.

"Expecting the plucky J-bay surfer to fight back with tenacity, McGillivray unfortunately suffered an interference call with Staples, and with a zero score included in his tally, there was no way he could extricate himself from the runner-up position". -Edited by Bev Martinear

King of the Kromme 2018

Pam Golding King of the Kromme was, won by Jasper Mocke, the new 2018 King of the Kromme! Held in calm, warm conditions, with a full moon high tide, paddlers enjoyed an incoming tide for the beautiful paddle up the river, but had to work hard on the way back as the tide was still surging in! Plus some short cuts over still shallow sandbanks, in less than 500mm of water, made for some very tiring sections. But the scenery, particularly up the Geelhout made it worthwhile. The river was full of Easter weekend boats, many pulling skiers, adding another dimension with their wake causing a few paddlers to take a swim.

Many thanks to organizers Daryl Staples and Ingrid Staples, Dave-and-Marie Louw, Alastair Stuart-White for driving the safety boat, Pete King for placing the turn buoy, Woodlands Diary for the chocolate milk, Carbonology once again for their generous and high quality lucky draw split shaft paddle, Quayside for providing the best venue in the country, prize-giving photographers Jane Arderne and Warren Knez, drone pilots Warwick Purdy and Nevil Hulett

Surfing Star Crystal Hulett wins Women's Longboard event

St Francis Bay's Crystal Hulett surfed her way to victory in the World Surf League Women's Longboard event at the Royal St Andrews Hotel Port Alfred Classic Yesterday, 7 April.

And another St Francis Bay surfer, Michael Hill, will be surfing against Steven Sawyer of Jeffreys Bay today in the first of the semis on earlier this month.

Shortboard ace Crystal Hulett (St Francis Bay) scored an historic victory in this first WSL Longboard Qualifying Series event to be staged in South Africa when she defeated Mariska Myers (Jeffreys Bay). Both women caught plenty of waves in the final with Hulett's top two scores totaling 11.25 out of 20 versus the 9.5 accumulated by Myers, giving Hulett the early lead in the WSL Africa women's longboard rankings.

Also at the same event top seed and reigning WSL Africa champ Nicole Pallet (La Lucia) reached the semi-finals of the QS1,000 women's event after ousting Faye Zoetmulder (Cape St Francis). Joseline Andrade, the 19 year-old women's World Surf League (WSL) Qualifying Series (QS) title winner today, was elated to secure her first title by defeating 14-year-old standout Zoa Steyn (East London). -Edited by Bev Martinear
